NOVEMBER 2021

HORSE AND PEOPLE NEWS

Phaeton Park has been blessed by plenty of rain this month - the yard is looking beautifully lush and green.

We know the December holidays hang in the balance under the current circumstances. We hope you all get to spend quality time with your family and friends over the festive season. If you can travel, please enjoy the journey and return home safely.

Please note that our Phaeton Park Christmas Party has been postponed due to the current COVID situation. We will reschedule for the new year.6

MOOLMANSHOEK CHERRY FESTIVAL ADVENTURE

A few Phaeton Parkers went down to the beautiful Moolmanshoek for a cherry-picking ride in November.

Riders and their trusty horses, climbed over the mountains and into the cherry orchards to pick cherries from the backs of their horses. They had a lovely lunch under trees beside a dam. After lunch, they went to visit a cave and rode back over the mountain in a crazy thunder and lightning storm.

BLONDE OF THE MONTH

November's blondes are all about boots!

Mbasa went out one morning for breakfast with family before her lesson. Her pony arrived on time for her lesson. Mbasa finally arrived, late, only to realise she had left her boots and chaps at home.

Carmen also realised she forgot her boots at home when she arrived for her lesson. She had to dart off to Western Shoppe to go buy new ones.

Harriet had arranged to go on an outside and arrived at stables with no boots to ride in as well!
